WorkSource Snohomish County announces plans to disseminate services across the county

Everett, January 25, 2008 – WorkSource Snohomish County has begun plans to disseminate employer and job candidate services across the county in order to meet the needs of a broader cross-section of businesses and job candidates.

Four Community Forums will take place across the county allowing residents to provide input regarding future placement of WorkSource centers and services. The forums will be held on the following dates:

1. January 31, 2008 | 11 am - 12:30 pm
Lynnwood Public Library, 1911 44th Avenue, Lynnwood
2. February 1, 2008 | 8:30 – 10 am
Monroe Fire Department, 163 Village Court, Monroe
3. February 4, 2008 | 6 - 7:30 pm
Marysville Mountain View High School, 4317 76th St NE, Marysville
4. February 6, 2008 | 2 - 3:30 pm
Everett Public Library, 2702 Hoyt Avenue, Everett

WorkSource Snohomish County currently offers business assistance; employment services; and referrals to training programs and community service providers in two locations: Everett and Lynnwood. Interested parties can also give input online via a survey located at <http://www.worksourceonline.com/>.

As outlined in its strategic plan, Promoting a Globally Competitive Workforce for Snohomish County, Workforce Development Council Snohomish County is committed to making WorkSource services accessible and visible to underserved regions of Snohomish County. This includes addressing the workforce development needs of rural areas and industries as well as implementing an aggressive WorkSource site recruitment plan.

Workforce Development Council Snohomish County (WDCSC)

WDCSC invests government and private funding to continuously increase the global competitiveness and prosperity of county workforce and businesses, fill current and emerging jobs, and provide full employment. Investments are made through effective business, labor, community-based, educational, and service provider organizations for the opportunity, economic well-being, and benefit of our entire community.
